Lincoln Back Today To Normal After Night Of Celebration

PARTY LEADERS LEAVE FOR EAST

Governor Bryan Goes Over Details Of His Itinerary

(Associated Press)
LINCOLN, Neb., Aug. 19.—Lincoln returned to normal today after having last night witnessed its fourth celebration attending the notification to members of the Bryan family of their nomination by the democratic party.

William Jennings Bryan had been honored by middle western citizens on three different occasions when he was notified of his nomination for president. Last night Brother Charley governor of the state and its adopted son for 30 years, received the highest political honor of his life, when he was officially tendered the nomination as democratic candidate for the vice presidency.

Democratic party leaders overnight shifted the political spotlight from Lincoln to Chicago. Clem L. Shaver, chairman of the national committee, returned on a midnight train with other party dignitaries.

Governor Bryan yesterday went over with the democratic field marshal some of the details of his itinerary, but no announcement has yet been made of any dates or places.

LINCOLN, Neb., Aug. 19.—Before a large and colorful gathering of long time friends and supporters and national and sectional party leaders, Gov. Charles W. Bryan last night formally accepted the nomination for vice president by the democratic party and laid down in unmistakable terms the principles and issues upon which he will go before the people for victory at the polls.

In the center of the football field at the University of Nebraska Memorial stadium, Governor Bryan made his speech of acceptance following the lead of his party's standard bearer, John W. Davis, who a week ago chose the open for launching the democratic campaign at Clarksburg, W. Va.

Governor Bryan definitely opened his campaign with the promise to the progressive farmers and wage earners that the democratic party will stand as a unit in seeking a solution of their difficulties.

Senator Harrison of Mississippi who delivered the notification address also acclaimed the democratic organization as the only one to which the progressive element could look for direction and leadership and asserted the presidential race would be between the two parties.

The vice presidential candidate praised his party's platform as broad, strong and progressive enough to justify the support of those who believe in equality before the law and declared the democratic have presented a program of progressive policies for which the party stands as a unit, without the intervention of faction, bloc or section.

He pledged his full support to Mr. Davis and declared both he and the Presidential candidate are in harmony with the platform upon which they will fight for electoral support.

By the selection of one from the heart of the great middle west as its candidate, the democratic party recognizes the importance of agriculture as one of the basic industries of the nation. Mr. Bryan asserted, adding that "we have the assurance that our party is in direct sympathy with the needs and advancement of the farmers of the country."

ROAD COMMISSION PAYS A VISIT TO MORGAN COUNTY

Members Of Highway Unit Making Tour Of The Valley

CONFER WITH LOCAL PEOPLE

Conference Set for 3:30 At the Chamber of Commerce Rooms

At three o'clock today a meeting is called to be held in the Twin Cities between members of the Alabama State highway commission, and especially appointed committees of this county for the purpose of going over the public road question, as it affects Morgan County.

Commissioners Scruggs and Settle arrived here early today and registered at a local hotel.

Presumably Messrs. Scruggs and Settle came from the Tri-Cities where they and state engineer W. S. Keller and District Engineer Barnham were on Monday.

The commissioners were not at their hotel this morning, although they were guests of the hotel. It was reported they were out on some for the county highways, that connect with the state highway system and later went to Huntsville.

The meeting will doubtless be presided over by Chairman John R. Rogers, of the state highway commission who is expected to arrive from the south on an afternoon train.

D. E. HENDERSON TO BECOME CASHIER

Notice was received here today of the election of D. E. Henderson, formerly in the wholesale jewelry business at Nashville and about a year ago auditor of the Tennessee aViley bank, as cashier of the Farmer's State bank of Huntsville.

Mr. Henderson is highly esteemed here, and his many friends are glad to know he will be located so near the Twin Cities, his old home. At the time he resigned his position here with the Tennessee aViley bank, Mr. Henderson was succeeded by H. L. McCain, who lately resigned to accept a similar one with the state banking commission.

E. P. Garner, of Nashville and formerly national bank examiner with headquarters in New York is the present auditor of the Tennessee aViley bank, succeeding Mr. McCain.

No Rabies Found In Head of Dog

An inclusive test for rabies has just been made at the Tennessee Valley Laboratory on the brain of a dog test shows "negative" viz, that hydrophobia was not present. Dr. Perolio, the director, stated that since the animal was killed and not allowed to die, he could not be absolutely sure as to whether or not it was suffering from rabies. The dog bit one child.

The director insists that where practicable all animals apparently suffering with rabies be allowed to die as the disease germs are then numerous and unmistakable as to their kind.

CABINET OF FRANCE APPROVES WORK OF PARLEY AT LONDON

French Delegation Is Extended Thanks By the Nation

REICHSTAG WILL MEET ON FRIDAY

Chancellor Marx Is Very Thoughtful of Premier Herriot

(Associated Press)
PARIS, Aug. 19.—The French cabinet today unanimously approved the work of the French delegation at the international conference in London and thanked it for the important results it had attained in the interests of France.

The cabinet met this morning and after having listened attentively to a report by Premier Herriot, on the proceedings and the results of the conference, gave its unqualified approval of the accord which had been concluded at the meeting at the British capital.

It was decided that the premier should read his declaration before the senate and chamber on Thursday giving a complete report of the work of the London conference to both bodies of the French legislature.

With the approval of the cabinet for his part in the London negotiations, the French premier is faced with a strenuous two or perhaps three weeks in parliament, where already eight important interpellations are scheduled in the chamber of deputies.

In the upper house, former Premier Poincare is to take the floor against the government. Neither house, however, is expected to go to the extent of voting disapproval of the premier's course.

BERLIN, Aug. 19.—It is generally expected that the reichstag will meet Friday and that its decision on the results of the London reparations conference will be taken at the end of next week.

Yesterday's meeting of the cabinet under the chairmanship of President Ebert unanimously approved the German delegations attitude during the London negotiations, and the government is determined to dissolve the reichstag in the event of the latter failing to sanction the London pact.

The government's policy in this regard was made clear to the leaders of the parties in discussions after the cabinet meeting when Chancellor Marx laid before them the result of the London conference. He emphasized that from his personal view with Premier Herriot, in London, he believed that the French premier had the best intentions and could be trusted.

The chancellor expressed the belief the French premier would have made further concessions on the questions of the Ruhr exaction if political considerations had not prevented him.

School Census Shows Increase

The school population of Albany continues to grow as shown by a recent report made to county superintendent of education E. L. Hayes, by Superintendent Ralph W. Cowart of the Albany schools. The report is as follows: White children aged 6, 164; ages 7-20 1695, total 1859. Negroes aged 6, 34 ages 7-20 449, total 483, grand total 2342.

REYKJAVIK, Iceland, Aug. 19.—The American army world fliers will be unable to leave Iceland for Greenland for at least three days more, owing to damage suffered by both planes in an attempted start.

Lieutenants Lowell H. Smith and Eric Nelson, the pilots, with their mechanic, Lieutenant Leslie Arnold and John Harding, Jr., rose early yesterday, enthused by the prospects of being off once more, after the tedious wait here for favorable weather conditions and the establishment of a suitable landing place on the Greenland coast.

Their machines were heavily loaded with fuel for the hop of more than 800 miles to Fredericksdal and it was this extra weight that caused the trouble, as the planes refused to lift from the water.

Repeated efforts to get off were in vain and the strain caused the spreader bar on Lieutenant Smith's plane to break, while the propeller of the other machine was shattered.

Repairs await the arrival here of the cruiser Richmond with spare parts. The cruiser, which had put to sea in anticipation of the flight, is not expected to reach port before tomorrow.

GLANDS EFFECT EMOTIONAL LIFE

(Associated Press)
CHICAGO, Aug. 18.—The endocrine glands effect the emotional life, according to an admission which Clarence Darrow, chief counsel for Nathan Leopold, Jr., and Richard Loeb drew today from Dr. H. Douglas Singer, on cross examination in the Franks hearing. The answer came reluctantly in this form:

"Are the endocrine glands part of the emotional life?"

"Yes, sir."

"Do they affect it?"

"If they are part of it they must affect it. Why not say so in the first place?"

"Well, I thought my answer was more complete than your question."

HANDSOME NEW METHODIST CHURCH AT CULLMAN OPENED

By David D. Gibson.

On Sunday, August 17th, one of the most commodious houses of worship of this section was opened for its first service, on the former site of the old Cullman First Methodist church South. Under the leadership of Rev. Kimbrough, about eighteen months ago, it was determined by the members of this church to erect a better building at this place, and they at once set to work and inside of six months the actual work had begun. The old church was torn down and material was placed for the new edifice, which is indeed a credit to a town of much larger proportions than Cullman.

Bishop Warren A. Candler preached at the opening service last Sunday, all the other churches joining in the worship at the new building, and a general spirit of rejoicing was felt in a most inspiring service, with a congregation of about 1,000 people present all comfortably seated in the beautiful and spacious auditorium.

The building is constructed of stone from Cullman County, and the outside effect is indeed attractive.

The Sunday school department includes a large basement and two floors above, with departmental rooms, large class rooms, a kitchen, with all modern conveniences, and

CITY WILL BACK UP THE SCHOOL BOARD FREE WATER FIGHT

Council Decides to Aid In Contention Of School Officials

REFUSE TO STOP CEMETERY WORK

Not Consulted Before the Committee Points Out

The city of Albany will stand back of the board of education of the city in its contention with the Alabama Water company. The board of education proposes to take court action against the water company to compel it to furnish water for the public schools of the city gratis, the board claiming that a contract exists between the city of Albany and the water company to that effect. At this time the water company is claiming about $2,600 as due it from the board of education for services rendered. At the present time, officials state, the water supply has been cut off from the school buildings.

The decision to support the board of education was reached Monday night at a session of the Albany city council, following formal request made by B. L. Malone, chairman of the board of education of the city of Albany.

The council's sanitary committee, composed of T. Frank Lewis, John Maxwell, C. H. Chunn and J. W. McCall refused to take any action on a petition presented by Dr. C. S. Chennault and others asking that the city of Albany take steps to arrest developments at the Garth heights subdivision, where work is being done preparatory to opening a cemetery there. The Morgan County board of revenue having recently approved the plans of the cemetery company.

The sanitary committee, through its chairman, stated that as it had not been consulted as to the location of the cemetery, it would take no action.

The civil engineer was asked to get out street assessment costs as early as possible for third, fourth and fifth avenues west Albany.

Mayer W. Aldridge, of Montgomery, public accountant, has been employed to audit the books of the city. The traffic ordinance was ordered revised further.

Judge Knox, who had previously scored Mr. Haskell for his conduct of the company, heard witnesses say Middle States assets had dwindled $77,000,000 in a single year.

SENATOR PAT TO WIN, FRIENDS SAY

(Associated Press)
JACKSON, Miss., Aug. 19.—Mississippi Democrats went to the polls today to nominate a United States senator, four members of the house of representatives and lesser officials, four additional congressmen being without opposition have already been certified as the nominees. Democratic nomination is equivalent to election.

Friends of Pat Harrison predict he will sweep the state with the largest majority ever given a candidate. His opponent, former Governor Earl Brewer, however, seems confident of victory.

CHEYENNE, Wyo., Aug. 19—

Wyoming is holding a state-wide primary election today to select candidates for United States senator, congress, judicial and legislative offices. Only small interest has been shown in the pre-election campaign.

Joseph C. O'Mahoney, of Cheyenne, former secretary to United States Senator John B. Kendrick, Democrat, is opposed for the Democratic nomination for senator by Robert R. Rose, judge of the eighth judicial circuit, and Leory R. Laird, state highway superintendent.

Hermione Lodge Will Enjoy Feast

Next Monday evening Hermoine Lodge, Knights of Pythias of Decatur, will hold a special meeting and spread a watermelon feast, it was decided at this week's meeting of that organization.

In accordance with plans made by all the lodges of the Knights of Pythias of the state, early this fall a campaign for 5,000 additional members will be opened, officials of Hermoine lodge stated.

COTTON PEST NOW CAUSES FRIGHT BY RAPID ADVANCES

Crop Is Menaced and Production May Be Materially Cut

FIRST COTTON IS BROUGHT TO TOWN

Farmers Hoping That Bolls Will Harden Very Quickly

The boll weevil has made its appearance in Morgan County and other sections of the Tennessee Valley in such numbers that the cotton crop of North Alabama is seriously menaced according to prominent planters here today.

Aided by favorable weather the cotton crop had made such rapid progress toward maturity, that many had hoped that the crop might be as far advanced, before the weevil appeared, that the damage would be small. During the past few days, however, weevils have been appearing in all of the fields practically in this territory.

This morning F. F. Tidwell was displaying several weevils which he had taken off the plants in one of his cotton fields. He declared that the weevils are beginning to infest practically all of the farms of the county.

Fred Patterson, who brought the first bloom of the season to town early this summer, this week brought the first cotton here. The staple was grown on a farm within a mile or two of the corporate limits of the Twin Cities.

Farmers today were very much worried over the advances being made by the weevil and unless the bolls harden very rapidly, weevils are apt, they said, to materially reduce the cotton production of this section of the state.

Mrs. Edmundson Speaks To Farmers

(Associated Press)

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Aug. 19.—Urging a stronger organization among farmers and a greater co-operation between farmers and labor, Congressman George Huddleston, of Birmingham delivered the address of welcome at the Alabama division of the Farmers Education and Cooperative Union which opened a two days session here today. Other speakers included T. D. Parson, of Talladega; Judge J. H. Pace, of Thomasville, Tenn.; Mrs. W. B. Edmundson of Decatur, a member of the executive committee and L. B. Musgrove, of Jasper.

Charles S. Barrett, of Union Springs Ga., president of the national association, will be the principal speaker tomorrow.

Funeral Held For Charles Shafer

Funeral services were announced to be held at 4 o'clock today for Charles Shafer who died Monday at the family residence on West Market street. The interment will be in the city cemetery. The deceased is survived by his wife and five small children. He formerly farmed near Rock House up the Tennessee river from here. The father of the deceased lives here. The following sisters and brothers survive: Mrs. Hattie Bailey of Silver City, N. M.; Mrs. S. M. White of Decatur and Ollie, Robert, Clarence and Frank Shafer, all of Decatur; Lee Shafer of Louisville, Ky. and Arthur Shafer of Silligent, N. M.

A DAILY PRAYER.—Do Thou help us, for Thy glory, to get the victory against the doubt that is within, and in favor of the faith Thou wouldst inspire.

Charley Bryan will have plenty of family help. His brother, William Jennings, will take the stump for him, as will Silas M. Bryan, his son.

Times continue to change. A radio broadcaster declares that whereas a short time back, women asked for fashion news and men for information about automobiles, the situation now is just the reverse.

Any doubting Thomas who might believe a bridge across the Tennessee river here would not pay, should watch the boats plying the stream at the Bee Line highway crossing on a Sunday afternoon. The ferries, no doubt, render unusually good service, but a bridge is demanded by progressive communities in lieu of ferries. As we become more progressive, more insistent will become the demand for a bridge.

The action of the powers in accepting the Dawes plan, gives the Republicans hope that the people will forget their misdeeds and "high crimes," in the thought that the world is now to move forward to prosperity.

Mr. Coolidge has provided still another plan which will tend to pacify the people—his plan to have an anti-arms conference, to be attended by representatives of what he calls the "great powers."

The pledge of the president to have such a conference is contained in his speech of acceptance and is as follows:

When the reparations plan is in operation, I shall deem it an appropriate time to approach the great powers with a proposal for another conference for a further limitation of armaments and for devising plans for a codification of international law. I personally should favor entering into covenants for the purpose of outlawing aggressive war by any practical means. Our country has always been against aggressive war and for permanent peace. Those who are working out detailed plans to present such a policy for consideration have my entire sympathy. I trust that never again will the women of this nation be called on to sacrifice their loved ones to the terrible scourge of war.

Mr. Coolidge says he trusts the women of the country will not again be called upon to sacrifice their loved ones to war.

The people will be anxious to see how the president proposes to prove his faith by his works, when the anti-arms conference comes, if it ever does. In view of the fact that the Democratic party, under the leadership of Mr. Wilson, took the initiative in seeking to abolish war, and in view of the further fact that the Republicans have never aided the peace programs to any great extent, considerable doubt will be felt as to the success of the anti-arms conference.

I. T. Quinn, commissioner of game and fisheries, is asking the newspapers of the state to aid him in the department's work for conservation by carrying his message to the people of the state. After all is said and done, this educational campaign probably will have more effect on the future conservation status of Alabama than will the enforcement officers working in the department. It would require an army of officers to patrol every nook and corner of the state. The hunters, fishermen and the people generally will, themselves, make the best possible enforcement corps once they are aroused to the necessity for conservation.

Commissioner Quinn says:

The conservation, protection and propagation of the state's wild life resources are being emphasized more today than ever before.

The sportsman is not alone in his desire to see all forms of protected wild life conserved and increased for his pleasure and benefit.

The state of Alabama takes cognizance of the fact that the wild life resources within its borders have a tremendous economic value, not alone the game birds and animals, but the insectivorous birds as well.

Farmers everywhere are beginning to realize the economic value of insectivorous birds, and they are ready to co-operate in any reasonable way to secure better protection of those kinds that are of proven economic value to agriculture.

In order, therefore, to bring about a more cordial relationship and common understanding among the citizens of Alabama in setting up a conservation program for the future, and assistance in the determination of the policies which should be pursued, I am calling a convention of the citizens of the state to meet in Montgomery, 2 o'clock p. m., September 10th, to continue in session two days.

It is hoped that every county in the state will be represented at this conference. Each organization should select delegates and those counties in which game and fish protective associations or conservation clubs have not been organized should organize at once and select their delegates to attend the convention.

The program for the meeting will be announced later.

To increase business is the claim put forth, for the erection of a highway bridge over the Tennessee river here, and the claim is valid; but why not begin increasing business at once, by having the ferries over the river make their landings where the travelers will have easy access to the Twin Cities?

It appears a little odd that a community would be willing to put up many thousands of dollars for a Tennessee river bridge, and still continue to delay the matter of locating the ferry landings where they will accommodate the largest number of people. Especially when it will cost practically nothing to so arrange the ferries, so that, those who cross them will come directly into the business sections.

Why is nothing done about this important matter? Can it be that those who should move in the matter are doing nothing for fear of hurting trade on one part of the community to the benefit of another? No such a condition would arise; but granted for the sake of argument that one section and not several sections of the Twin Cities would benefit by the ferries being consolidated, would it be good community policy to continue to send the tourists far to the east of the cities?

Suppose for a moment that one ferry landing existed wherever it may be one end of the business section of the Twin Cities would benefit as the tourist came in and another would benefit as the tourists left town—provided they stopped and did business.

Tourists are going to do business all along the line from the river to the southern limits of Albany, as they go south, and all the way from Echols Hill to the northern limits of Decatur as they go north.

of the river. They will not do business at the

The same is true as to people living north first store they see; they will have curiosity enough and business judgment enough to try all along the line from Bank street, Lee street, Second avenue and Fourth avenue, as to when they care to spend their money. But leaving "up in the air" the question as to WHERE tourists and others will trade, who cross the Tennessee river, is it to the best advantage to pull the "dog in the manger act" as regards the ferry landings? Certainly not.

Let the people be landed in the business sections, and then let the "chips fall where they may" as to where they spend their money.

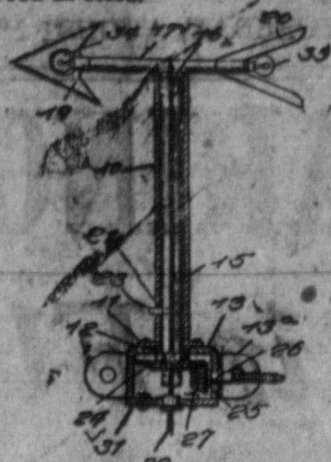

In the meantime, all necessary, according to the ferry owners to assure only one ferry landing for the Twin-Cities. Is such an accomplishment too difficult. Not where there is a will for such action.

Recently Granted by U. S. Patent Office

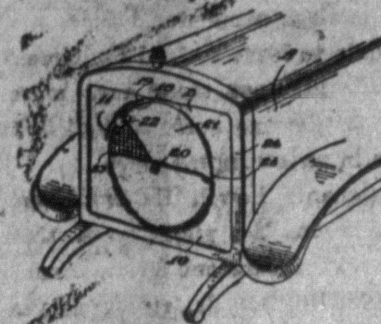

Compiled Weekly for this paper by CLARENCE A. O'BRIEN, Registered Patent Attorney, Washington, D. C.

Patent No. 1,503,806. AUTO-MOBILE DIRECTION SIGNAL. Fred L. Ross.

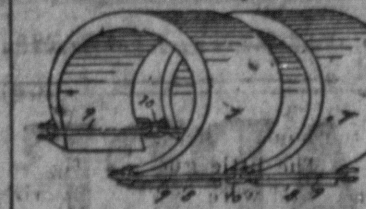

1. In a direction signal, a pivotally mounted unbalanced signal bar adapted to be raised and lowered, a support upon which the bar rests when in lowered position to thereby maintain the bar in horizontal position, and means for rotating the bar including a part elevating the bar upon rotation thereof to a predetermined degree to thereby disengage the bar from the support and permit tilting thereof.

Patent No. 1,503,465. AUTO-MOBILE RADIATOR SHIELD. Ernest Conley.

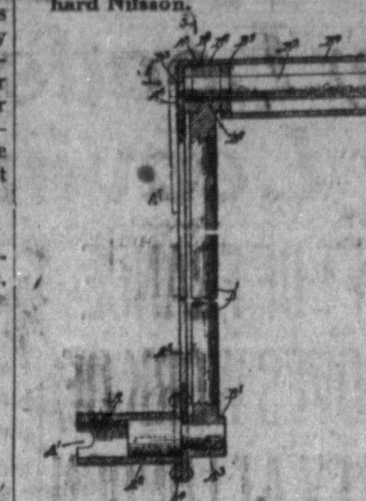

An automobile radiator shield comprising a substantially rectangular plate formed with peripheral offset edges engaging the radiator head, a circular bulge projecting from the center of the plate and formed with a semi-circular opening, a semi-circular closing element mounted in the circular projection to close the opening, an operating knob on the closing element, and notches in the plate to house the knob.

Patent No. 1,503,265. TIRE PROTECTOR. Barney Goldman.

1. In a tire protector the combination with a plurality of spaced tread segments made to embrace a tire, of an endless link looped about each segment near its end, and a second endless link of smaller length forming a spacer between each segment coacting with the looped portion of the segment link so that a segment will universally adjust itself to the periphery of the tire independent of the other sections.

Patent No. 1,503,963. SAFETY AUTOMOBILE CRANK. Bernhard Nilsson.

12. A starting crank for engines and the like comprising two crank members one rigid one flexible, a pin on one adapted to engage a perforation in the other, a handle on the rigid member and means operative when the handle rotates with respect to it for deflecting the flexible member to throw the pin out of engagement with the perforation and permit rotation of the two members with respect to one another, the handle having an extension overlying the crank adapted to engage the crank and to limit its rotary excursion, a notch in such extension and a lug on the flexible crank adapted to engage such notch.

FARN NOTES

By National Boll Weevil Control Association. J. C. Ford, County Agent, Co-operating

The agricultural club boys of Morgan County, had a delightful outing at Lacy Springs, August 5th to 7th. Thirty boys gathered together from Pleasant Hill community, on the Decatur-Moulton road, Priceville, Hartselle, Eva, Ryan, Winton, Valhermosa and Lacy Springs. Six fathers went with their boys. Prof. McGee of Ryan and Supt. Hayes of Hartselle were present. Dr. H. C. McRee County Health Officer was unable to attend on account of an outbreak of typhoid in another part of the County.

Baseball, swimming, fishing, a trip to Huntsville and two picture programs at night, constituted the recreational and entertainment features of the program. The men and boys were divided into groups to do the cooking so that each had his chance. I am sure the mothers and wives of some of the boys and men will find them much easier to please since their camp experience.

When the supper dishes were cleared away, each fellow spread his blanket on the grass, looked up at the friendly stars, and if not disturbed by his neighbor, allowed his mind to wander according to his own fancy. A bunch of boys in camp will not let each other sleep much the first night but the second night does not require much argument from the older heads present.

Report on the progress of their work, by these young farmers, constituted one of the very best features of the outing. Club pigs in some cases are growing as much as 60 pounds a month. Corn club boys reported expectation of 60 to 75 bushels of corn per acre though none would risk the 100 bushel work, while bale per acre prediction were freely made by the members of the cotton club. In connection with these reports, Supt. Hayes was inspired to deliver an address which confirmed former good resolutions of the boys and stirred their ambition to new heights.

And through it all, two days and nights of a rough and terrible camp life. I did not see a cigarette or hear an oath, though not a word had been said to the boys about these things.

Cotton Leaf Worms

Announcement is made from Auburn that the cotton leaf worm that caused so much damage last year has been found in Marshall County. A leading farmer in Morgan County has caught the moth that lays the egg that starts the worm. There is the strongest probability that we shall have these pests again this year. Watch your cotton closely.

REPUBLICAN HOSTS GATHERING TODAY

(Associated Press)

EVANSTON, Ill., Aug. 19.—Charles G. Dawes, once currency controller, once the American expeditionary force's chief purchasing agent, once federal budget director and once head of the reparations commissions expert committee, waited at his home here today for the coming of republican leaders to add formally another title to his name, that of republican vice presidential nominee.

The party chieftains gathered by the hundreds and even by the thousands in Chicago and tonight they will march on this quiet little city on the shore of Lake Michigan to notify Mr. Dawes in a formal manner of his selection as the republican candidate for vice president.

Officials of the republican national committee, working with Evanston citizens in arranging for the ceremony, expect upwards of 100,000 people to gather about the Dawes home and along the nearby lake front should the weather be favorable.

Delegations from nearly 100 Chicago organizations, some political, some civic, some labor, some business and some representatives of the nominee's state, Ohio, have reserved space near the speakers stand. An almost equal number of delegations is expected from other middle western cities and towns.

Kirkland and daughter, Martha Barnes, of Milson, N. C., and Mr. and Mrs. Pat Kirkland and daughters, Alice and Margaret, of Birmingham.

Mrs. Elmo Williams and children, Evelyn and Elmo Jr., returned Sunday from a visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Hamlett and other relatives in Pulaski.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Thomas returned Monday from Mount Eagle and other points in Tenn.

Elmo Williams spent Thursday and Friday of last week in Birmingham with his brother Stacy Williams and family.

The friends of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Grizzard, nee Miss Robbie Brothers, will be interested to know that after their return from their nuptial trip in New Orleans, they are making their home in Canton, Ohio.

Mrs. C. J. Randolph left this afternoon for an extended visit to her parents in Chicago. Mrs. Randolph and son Clifford, Jr., were accompanied to Nashville, Tenn., by Mr. Randolph who is expected to return tonight.

Miss Felta Avant and Miss Maggie Carpenter of Hendersonville, Tenn., and Miss Agnes Tillery of Lebanon, Tenn., are the guests of Rev. and Mrs. J. H. Hill in South Albany.

Miss Mary Paul, Miss Olive Pitman and Calvin Edman of Florence were visitors here Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Kirkland and daughter, Martha Barnes, who have been guests of Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Kirkland, will return by motor to their home in Wilson, N. C., Wednesday.

Miss Rowena Baker has returned home from a visit of ten days to relatives in Winchester, Tenn.

HELP WANTED IN

And furnished by the help of Albany people.

Those who suffer with kidney back-ache, urinary ills or any little kidney or bladder disorder, want kidney help. Who can better advise than some Albany resident, who has also suffered but has had relief. Albany people recommend Doan's Pills. Here's one case and there are many others.

J. T. Nisger, 1225 Sixth Ave. S., says: "Pains shot through my back when I got in a bent position and I had a heavy, dull ache which gnawed right into me. My kidneys acted too freely and I had to get up during the night to pass the secretions. It didn't take much work to tire me out. Doan's Pills cured me. I have had no trouble since."

Price 60c at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Pills—the same that Mr. Nisger had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.—Adv't.

COURTESY MARKS TRIAL OF YOUTHS

(Associated Press)
CHICAGO, Aug. 19.—Courtesy raised to the highest degree marked the cross-examination today of Dr. William O. Krohn, state alienist, and last witness in the judicial hearing which is to determine the punishment of Nathan Leopold, Jr., and Richard Loeb for the kidnapping and murder of Robert Franks.

In contrast to yesterday's proceedings, when the experts and Benjamin Bachrach, of counsel for the defense, shouted angry retorts back and forth, there were smiles and pleas exchanged today.

The expert used "sir" in every answer and the attorney never failed to address the witness as "doctor."

Doctor Krohn once found occasion to dig the defense's alienist theory, explaining that he had given no formal opinion on the mentality of the defendants since June 1 and that newspaper interviews quoting him on that had resulted from his attempts to explain exaggerated claims made by the defense.

"You mean that the reporter told you these exaggerations were offered by the defense, did you not?" asked Mr. Bachrach. "Not entirely, anyway I tried to explain them for the boys."

MASONS MEET

There will be a meeting of Rising Sun Lodge No. 29 A. F. and A. M. tonight at 7:30 o'clock for work in the M. M. degree. All master masons are cordially invited to attend. E. R. Humphrey, W. M. E. E. Dickinson, Secretary. Adv't.

TUB DRESSES ARE BOTH DAINTY AND PRACTICAL

RIGHT: FLOWERED CRE-TONNE AND TAN RUFFLING

The tub dress is a far different thing in reality than its name would suggest. It sounds like something very plain and ugly, and terribly practical. Well, it is plain. And it is practical. But it is NOT ugly. See for yourself in the photo above. There is Betty Compton wearing a "tub dress" while making her latest Paramount picture, "The Enemy Sex." And a lovely picture it makes, too. It is peach colored. And it is plain. And it has an overshort of all-over embroidery. And it is easily washed and ironed. To facilitate this the overshort is made of a separate straight bit of oblong material, as easily washed and "tubbed" as the straight little, plain little foundation frock it goes over.

Moulton News

In the case of Herman Hughes, alleged slayer of Sadie Blaxton, Saturday morning the jury rendered a verdict of guilty and a sentence of life imprisonment. The case was one around which much interest had centered for almost two years.

In the evening of September 19, 1922, Hughes is said to have gone to the home of the girl, called her out into the hall from the supper table, repeated his frequent demands that she marry him and on her refusal is said to have shot her resulting in instant death. He was captured some miles from the scene the next day and for almost two years he has been in prison either in the Lawrence county jail or that of Limestone county where he was taken at once for safe keeping as he had made one of two almost successful attempts to break jail in Moulton.

During his imprisonment he has whiled away his time with banjo and songs to the entertainment of fellow prisoners and listeners near the jail. A few times his mother and his two or three motherless children have visited him and the children were allowed to spend the night with him.

Among the other criminal cases tried in the past week by the circuit court was that of Burch White, negro accused of killing another negro in the valley portion of the county; he pleaded guilty and was sentenced to life imprisonment. For this week, which is regular criminal week. More than half a dozen cases are awaiting decisions.

Directors of the Lawrence County Farm Bureau met in Moulton, Friday and re-appointed M. B. Mackey as manager for the county for the ensuing year. They also perfected plans for the membership campaign to take place throughout the county this week. The campaign is to be directly under the direction of Mr. Mackey, district director of the Alabama Farm Bureau Cotton Association; plans for erection of a farmers' warehouse were considered and it is very likely that such will soon be erected for storing of fertilizers and possibly of cotton.

Somewhat elaborate plans are being perfected for the picnic to be given in Moulton of the 22nd of the month for the benefit of the county high school.

spend part of the day at the bank he is not strong enough yet to resume his full duties as cashier.

A terracing school is to be conducted on the Downing farm out six miles north of Moulton near Mount Moriah on the 25 to 30 of the month; it is to be under the direction of Mr. LeBroun of Auburn assisted by S. L. Morrow county agent.

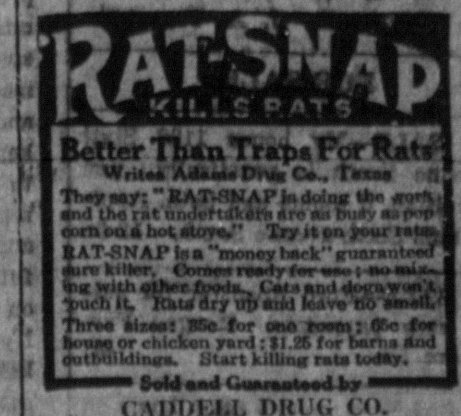

Dolphin Dines on 8,000 Fish
COPENHAGEN—Almost 8,000 little fish were devoured by a female dolphin at one meal, according to Dr. J. Schmidt, one of the best known ichthyologists of Denmark. Dr. Schmidt had this dolphin caught off the Spanish coast in the Mediterranean and then examined its stomach. He found in it 15,191 ear bones, of which every fish has two. Dr. Schmidt established the fact that these bones belonged to five varieties of fish that made up the dolphin's meal.

Jellyfish Stop Swimmer
HUSUM—Myriads of jellyfish stirred from depth by a heavy sea, clung to and stung Otto Kemmerich so severely that he had to abandon an endurance swimming contest in the North Sea off this place. After enduring agony for three and a half hours he came ashore exhausted and with his body badly swollen.

Central Prospects Look Gloomy As Grid
Time Rolls 'Round. Daily Meets Power Co.

Coach L. H. Duyck will certainly look around twice, when he arrives early in September, for football material at Central. At the present time the prospects are assuming a very gloomy aspect with practically the entire championship team of last season going into colleges and universities to seek further laurels in metropolitan circles.

Pepper, giant fullback of last season and one of the teams brightest lights on both the offensive and defensive, is lost to Central and will probably enter Alabama or Birmingham-Southern. Captain Tuck has Morgan in mind but may return to play with Central another year as he has two more years in which to participate. Rat Handy who did the receiving work on a number of Pepper's fifty yard heaves may answer the call to don Central colors. Hoss Burns, Kinky Sewell, Ollie McCord, Oscar Morrow, are all lost to Central leadership aspirations for the 1924-25 season. Pesky Johnson, Fred Bowen, Glen Lee, Captain Tuck and Wiggins and Spencer from last years scrubs will provide the nucleus around which Duyck will have to build a combination.

As the days roll onward it is likely that new names with great ability yet unused will appear to bolster Central's hopes of repeating last years enormous scores over Huntsville, Moulton, Athens and decisive victories over Disque, Morgan County High, Sheffield and the long remembered last minute romp over the touted Cullman machine that was later ignored and pushed aside by the state high school athletic board. Central only had one dark spot in the entire season to splutter her otherwise clean slate that was the defeat handed her by Coffee County High by a 6-0 score on Central's own field. The Florence team won a fair and clean victory although they were outgained and outfought after the first period of play.

This year will find both the cities of Albany and Decatur behind the Central mentor and there is little reason that with the beginning of school days that another glorious page in Central football history should not be written.

At this time the Daily and the Alabama Power company are tied in a struggle for the lead of the league or for a lowly third place station. Safley is doing hurling chores for the newspaper people while Banks is on the hill for the Powermen. The game is of much interest to the Shopmen who last Saturday moved from an obscure third place position to a tie for leading honors with the Daily. A victory for the Daily means that the Shopmen must again bow and accept the fruits of the runnerup position but a victory by the Power people will perch the Louisville and Nashville people on the top with a half game margin to their credit.

Not so many days until the Y. M. C. A. Industrial league is a thing of the past and it is hoped that the fans of Albany-Decatur will turn out to see the local curtain brought down off one of the best races of amateur clubs that has ever been seen in this section.

Monday morning at Malone Park the Rinky-Dinks ball club won from the Caddies by a score of 14-2 in a one sided affair with little color. The Caddies are being bolstered and it is thought that in the next fracas between the two that a more interesting battle will be witnessed.

BOYS CAMP PROMOTED BY "Y"

All boys of the Twin Cities who are interested in a two night outing on the Griffin farm near Danville are urged to go to the Y. M. C. A. and see Boys' Work Director Robert D. Edwards and sign up for the outing. There will be no expense to the trip except each boy furnishing his own eats. The boys will be carried to the Griffin farm and back in trucks. Arrangements are being made for tents for the boys to sleep under. The youngsters were out there last week and were so pleased with the trip that Director Edwards decided to plan another trip. It is absolutely essential that every boy who wishes to go to come by the Y. M. C. A. and sign up so he will be given instructions as to the rules of the two night camping trip. Anyone in the Twin Cities who has tents that they will put at the disposal of the boys are asked to telephone Secretary Edwards so he can see them and make arrangements for the tents. All boys over nine years of age are eligible for the camping trip. Consent of parents is essential for the boys to go.

HANDBALL UNDERWAY

Handball got under way in full swing last night at the Y. M. C. A. Everybody participating enjoyed themselves very much. The result of the match between the Go Getters vs. Bear Cats ended in 2 to 0 favor the Bear Cats, and the match between the Top Notchers vs. Path Finders favored the former team with a 2 to 0 score.

This evening at 5:30 the Leaders play the Extractors and the Pointers play the Pinchers. Men on these teams are M. Andrews, R. Skidmore, R. Collier, S. Lynne, Thos. Hodson, Robert Roy, Doctors Neill and McGlathery.

The newly organized Central Methodist Sunday School baseball team continued its winning streak by grabbing one from the League leading Central Baptists yesterday afternoon at Malone park by a score of 16 to 15. The Central Methodist have won their last three starts. They jumped on the offerings of Best of the Baptist in the first inning yesterday afternoon and scored three runs. They scored in every inning except the fourth and eighth. It looked like they would have a walk over with the game as they gave Calloway, the finest of support until the eighth inning after retiring the Baptist in one, two, three order. In the eighth after having the long end of a score of 16 to 5 they failed to support Calloway who was faltering and when the dust of the eighth blew away the Baptist had scored 10 runs in a desperate rally. Falls, Maness and Humphrey were the stars in fielding and batting for the Methodist aggregation. The batteries for the Central Methodist were Calloway and Turney while Best and Donohue alternated in the pitching and catching for the Central Baptist.

The Sunday school league standing is as follows:
Central Baptist 5 2
Decatur Baptist 3 3
Decatur Methodist 3 3
Central Methodist 3 4
On Wednesday the 20th of August the First Methodist of Decatur will play the Decatur Baptist for the second place in the league standing. These teams being tied for second place now. The bronze trophy offered

Many arrests have been made and several Mexicans have paid with their lives for the murder of Mrs. Rosalie Evans, wealthy British woman, who was shot and killed at her ranch at Pueblo, Mexico. Bernard Oliveros, brother-in-law of Mrs. Evans, is shown standing beside the vehicle in which Mrs. Evans was riding at the time of her death. Strands of her hair may be seen caught in the wheel. Mexican Government officials believe robbery to have been the sole motive for the shooting, inasmuch as John Strauss, manager of the ranch, was robbed of $4,000 pesos.

Before
Comes

Mother of three children tells experience with "Mother's Friend."

"I USED 'Mother's Friend' before my last baby came," writes Mrs. McCormick, Liberty St., Pontiac, Mich., "and brought him with very little discomfort. I am the mother of three children but I never had such an easy time with the other two. I recommend 'Mother's Friend' to all expectant mothers."

"Mother's Friend" is applied externally. It relieves that tight feeling; permits easier natural readjustment of muscles and nerves during expectancy and at child-birth.

Spight Speaks To
"Y" Bible Class

In speaking to the Y. M. C. A. Bible class Sunday, W. R. Spight, prominent business men of the Twin Cities dwelt upon St. Paul's experiences at Athens, at the time the apostle made his famous Mars Hill address. Mr. Spight said that just as Athens, the seat of learning and culture of the ancient world afforded few converts to Christianity, so today in our colleges and Universities, it seems difficult for the kind of Christianity taught by St. Paul to get a foot hold.

The speaker declared that the church must still look to the great masses of the common people for recruits for Christianity, so today in our colleges and universities, it seems difficult for Christ. The class was called to order by its president, C. W. Matthews, and some reports were heard including the financial report from the July 4 baseball game as played between the Bible class and the Morgan Kiwanis club. Mr. Matthews said the Bible class got as its part of the gate receipts, close to $150 and that the money, after paying all expenses would be devoted to charity.

by W. W. Rahm Co. will be displayed at the Central Methodist church next Sunday. On Monday, August 25 the Decatur Baptist will contest with the Central Methodist and on Wednesday August 27 the Central Baptist will play First Methodist. The umpires for yesterday games were: Smith and Plemmon with Robert Roy serving as scorer.

Now read this letter of thanks from Mr. Kane. It speaks for itself. Remember, it is because Kellogg's Bran is ALL bran—that it was so effective in his case—just as it has been in thousands of others. ALL bran can produce 100 per cent results.

My dear friend:
Imagine a young man weighing 150 pounds in the course of a few weeks losing 100 pounds. An elderly lady whom I since I was a kid paid me what she thought was a last visit. Upon being told I was a last visit, she immediately mentioned product for such an ailment. Mayb of us didn't look upon her view lightly . . . it was to laugh!

My dear friend, I am still laughing not at your product, but because able to. I am telling you and the w large. "Eat Kellogg's Bran" should be called "Constipation's enemy." I owe you my heartfelt thanks. I can talk, and whenever the opportunity presents itself, my mouth is always full of Kellogg's Bran. Wish countless days of progress, I am Yours for success,

John M. Kane,

Eat Kellogg's Bran, cooked and bleb, regularly to relieve constipation permanently. Two tablespoonsful in chronic cases, with every meal guaranteed to bring results, or you will return your money. You will find it delicious nut-like flavor. Sold by all grocers.

Water on Tobacco—
It slows a tobacco burn, the slower it smokes. Also the longer it smokes. This slow burning is due to the "Granger" in "rough cut" to "smooth" and "cut" for pipes, cigars, and Wellman's famous secret method produces richer fragrance and taste.
